Aedes (Ochlerotatus) flavescens

- Overwinters as an egg, single annual generation\(^1\)
- Larvae usually found in temporary pools in open prairie\(^1\)
- Females bite during the day and early evening\(^1\)
- Prefer feeding on cattle over humans\(^1\)